X-Fit capsule contains Vitamin-E, Tribulus terrestris, L-Arginine, Selenium and L-Optizinc as crucial and essential ingredients for the healthy vitality and smooth sexual performance.

Vit-E is considered as “Sex Vitamin” and a potent antioxidant that helps protect cells from oxidative stress, enables X-Fit to play a crucial role in reproductive function, contributing to increase blood flow and oxygen to the genitals.

L-OptiZinc supports immune function, metabolism and plays a role in the maintenance of normal testosterone levels, which impacts male reproductive health. This form of zinc is highly bioavailable.

L-Arginine is an amino acid that promotes the production of nitric oxide, helps to improve blood flow, which is beneficial for cardiovascular health and erectile function. Tribulus Terrestris known for its traditional use in Ayurvedic medicine, enhances libido and supports testosterone levels, contributing to male reproductive health.
